GOD ON THE MOVE AT CAMP HILL

Greetings in the most magnificent Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ. I'm writing to give a brief testimony of the love and saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the great and marvelous things He is doing at the State Correctional Facility of Camp Hill.

I'm Dave Socko, one of the volunteer staff for Second Chance Ministries. I'm blessed to be allowed to minister each week at SCI Camp Hill. Occasionally I'm invited to speak at a Sunday service. I'm writing this letter to let everyone know that even behind prison bars there is still hope and life.

During 2011, while ministering at SCI Camp Hill, approximately 600 men came to know Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior and most recently, on January 29, 2012 at least 115 men did the same. That day was an amazing time, I spoke on Ephesians 1:3 and 2:6. The message was that we need to stop fighting a fight we can not win, and let Him who already won the battle, fight the fight for us. When the men realized that the battle is really not theirs and that the devil is a liar you could almost see their burdens lift off their shoulders. It was after this realization that the men all over the sanctuary began to stand up and accept Jesus Christ into their lives. Family curses and burdens began to be lifted and God that day set them free. God is doing a mighty work through out the correctional facilities of PA. He is not limited by our past or our present, and if we will let Him, He will not limit our future.

Do not ever stop believing because our God is an Awesome God, and there is nothing impossible for Him. I heard a quote that truly applies to our life in Christ today. Yesterday is history, tomorrow is a mystery, today is a gift that is why it is called the present. Let's live our lives in such a way for Jesus Christ today, so much so, that yesterday will not matter, tomorrow can fend for itself, but today we live in the gift of love and presence of God.

May God bless you and keep you, may you always find your strength, courage and guidance in Him. For He says; I will never leave you, nor forsake you. I will always be with you. Your loving Father, God.

Your brother in Christ, Minister Dave Socko
